PWS Student Service Club

The Piedmont Wind Symphony Student Service Club works alongside adult volunteers and PWS board members to support the ensemble on its mission to deliver exciting, professional performances of contemporary and traditional symphonic wind band music to the broadest audience possible and to provide a creative platform from which musicians and composers entertain, educate, and grow.

PWS student volunteers gain valuable experience working alongside professional local musicians and the PWS board of directors in a thriving arts community. Volunteers also gain free access to PWS performances as they work to help with important tasks related to regular season and pops concerts.

Student Volunteer Tasks may include:

- Stage setup (set up chairs and music stands)
- Greet/hand out programs
- Walk among the crowd to collect donations and distribute materials (outdoor concerts)
- Usher (direct patrons to handicapped access, restrooms, exits)
- Stage breakdown (stack chairs and music stands)
